

Carbon Emissions getting you down? Can't find your way through the details?

Do you want to make a home and family contribution to reducing greenhouse gas emissions?

Join us for dinner and hear from two engaging speakers!

Where: St Martin in the Fields, Dyson Street, Kensington

When: Friday September 19 at 7.00pm

How much: $25.00 waged or $20 unwaged

Tickets available from Theo Mackaay on 9325 5766 or office@anglicansrcwa.org

Our speakers will be:

Ms Nicky Cusworth is Director of Economic Policy with the WA Department of Treasury and Finance, and is part of the team advising the State Government on emissions trading issues. She will describe the reasons for using a trading scheme to cut emissions, how the proposed scheme will work and some of the key policy issues influencing the scheme's design. Nicky is a member of the Social Responsibilities Commission

The Revd Eira Clapton is a founding member of the WA Collaboration for Sustainability and fast becoming a specialist in household energy reduction techniques. She will be able to give a range of tips for cutting your own household's carbon footprint, and advise on how your Eira is a member of the Social Responsibilities Commission.

This event is part of Sustainable September 2008